FACULTY ASSIGNMENTS

3.25120 DR

The college presidents will ensure that the following are observed in making faculty assignments.

- I. Part-time faculty members will be employed when required to teach specified courses at specified times and places. Pay will be in accordance with the part-time faculty salary schedule.
- II. Probationary faculty members, those faculty on contracts with restrictive clauses, and those faculty on Column I of the faculty salary schedule will be assigned schedules consistent with qualifications and prior experience.
- III. Faculty members, prior to nomination to nonprobationary status, will have been assigned at least one course in those curriculum levels of subject areas in which the faculty member is qualified to teach and which the college offers.
- IV. All qualified nonprobationary faculty members will have equal opportunities on a rotational basis for assignment to available hours, space and classes. Courses unique in either content or delivery may be exempted by the college president.
- V. Nonprobationary faculty members will share in the responsibility for teaching remedial, first level and technical courses in their disciplines and in assignment of night and/or Saturday classes when part of contract teaching.
