PRE-APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM IN WAREHOUSING NOW OFFERED AT MCC

MCC is expanding its apprenticeship program to address the demand for a trained workforce in warehousing and forklift (also known as Dockworker). The pre-apprenticeship program will give companies access to a pipeline of participants to potentially hire.

THE PRE-APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM:

- Examines the movement of information and products through the supply chain.
- Provides foundational knowledge for front-line workers in warehouse operations.
- Gives participants training in forklift safety fundamentals, basic instruction in forklift operation and hands-on driving experience in a warehouse setting under supervision.
- Successful completers will earn an OSHA-10 certification.
- Additional training and instruction can be conducted in softskills, employability, and basic skills in the graphic literacy of reading maps, charts and graphs.

Employers now have the ability to offer short-term trainings to build a talent pipeline and start a registered apprenticeship program. Please contact apprenticeship.outreach@mcckc.edu for more information.
