MCC Admission Policy and Use of Student Information

The college does not discriminate with regard to disability, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation or gender. The information you provide is used for state and federal reporting only. It is kept confidential and is not used to determine acceptance for admission. Submission of false information and /or failure to submit required documentation is grounds for denial of admission. Special admission programs do have additional requirements for acceptance.

Students with Disabilities

If you need an accommodation due to a disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please contact the Access Counselor at the college you wish to attend at least six weeks prior to the beginning of each semester (Blue River 816-220-6520; Longview 816-672-2254; Maple Woods 816-437-3192; Penn Valley 816-759-4089).

I have read and agree to comply with Metropolitan Community Colleges' policies, Student Code of Conduct and all Federal Nonimmigrant Regulations. I certify that all of the information provided on the MCC International Student Application is true and correct. I understand it is my responsibility to maintain my nonimmigrant status. I agree I will maintain compliance with any insurance requirements specified by MCC. I understand that submission of false information and /or failure to submit required documentation is grounds for denial of admission, re-enrollment or immediate suspension if enrolled. I authorize Metropolitan Community College to release information to appropriate authorities relating to compliance with Federal Regulations and in the publishing of recognition lists such as the Honor Roll, List of Graduates, etc.
